2. Instrument Flight Procedure (IFP) for Runway 19

- FAA has reviewed current conditions and confirmed eligibility for IFP as of 5/3/22
- IFP will allow for operations under a wider array of weather conditions and is expected to increase aeronautical activity on the airfield
- Publication of new IFP is expected to take 12 to 18 months due to FAA backlog
- ALP Update project will incorporate IFP into new master plan
- FAA currently reviewing request as of 12/20/22 – new AGIS Survey uploaded to FAA Database 2/1/23
 - AGIS task was associated with ALP project. IFP Review was on-hold until new survey could be uploaded to FAA Database.

3. Bipartisan Infrastructure Law – Airport Infrastructure ($145,000 per year)

- FAA announce on 12/16/21 – M04 to receive $145,000 in additional funding for FY23 to be used in conjunction with the standard $150,000 non-primary entitlement (NPE) funds.
- The additional funding will continue through FY25—however, funding amounts may vary from year to year.
- Grant guidelines and eligible project will match those of the standard NPE grants.

4. 2023 Airfield Maintenance – TAD # 84-555-0794-23

- $15,000 Annual reimbursable grant for maintenance and upkeep
